

Summer Girl Army Turns Atlantic City Into Beauty Show

100,000 Brighten Boardwalk Verandas While Host of New Arrivals Promises to Shatter Resort Records

Special Dispatch to The Tribune ATLANTIC CITY, Aug. 14.—One hundred thousand summer maids are on the list for the mid-August Sunday at the shore. All this week the real summer maids have been pouring in and it is a pity that which does not have a sort of beauty show for its verandas and ballrooms. Down along the Strand beach Surgeon Bossert and other experts declare that the crop of summer beauties is larger and finer than ever before, and the functions at yacht clubs and casinos in the summer cottage colony are bright with feminine youth.

It is expected that all records for Boardwalk attendance will go to smash with arrival of the excursionists to-morrow. Since Thursday there has been a constant call for quarters from all over the country and the seashore cot is likely to be called into extensive commission.

Trains have been running in sections all this week, while the motorists have dared highways torn up for repairs to an extent that has forced appointment of special officers who man the points where detours are necessary.

The entire resort has been enlisted in the work of preparation for the Fall Frolic planned to be the big event of the late season. Motor runs from New York and other cities, with trophies for the winners in several classes, will open the carnival which will have a parade of bathing beauties, a flower pageant with boardwalk rolling chairs, a marine parade and a grand athletic carnival among its features.

One of the social events of the week was the card function given at the Blackstone in aid of the Council of Jewish Women who managed the affair. Both yacht clubs have their summer programs of sport and social affairs well under way and there is much activity among the younger set in the leading hotels.

A number of foreign visitors arrived this week. G. Christopherson, G. Christopherson, Jr., and J. Reebly came from Buenos Ayres to the Traymore. Mr. and Mrs. Henry G. Moline are at that hotel from Porto Rico, and Mrs. W. E. Hopkins, Oscar Sillen, S. Berthron and Mrs. C. M. came from Stockholm to the Traymore.

Townsend Pinckney and Cornelius Pinckney, who have been at Colorado Springs, arrived at the Ambassador this week. Alfred L. du Pont heads a Wilmington party at that hotel.

Among the New Yorkers at the Ambassador are George Fies, R. C. Berle, L. W. E. King, Jr., R. S. Ward, Mr. and Mrs. John P. Mudd, Mr. and Mrs. William V. Courtwright, R. L. Taylor, E. P. Robertson, M. Hayes, Miss Dorothy Moss, Mrs. G. A. Ackerman, Jack Edson, J. L. Hinkinson, S. M. D. Vitalis, Mr. and Mrs. J. Guy Ahlqvist, Lester E. Falk, Mr. and Mrs. Henry R. Cushing, Mrs. P. H. McNulty, Miss Helen McNulty, Mr. and Mrs. L. Woodburn, J. Woodmont, C. F. Cartledge, Mr. and Mrs. William Calender, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Oakley and W. L. Sullivan.

Nora Hayes headed the list of theatrical stars at the Shelburne this week. General Quincy O. Gilmore came from New York to visit with Quincy O. Gilmore, Jr., at the Brighton. Mr. and Mrs. J. Edward Jones motored from New York for a stay at the Dennis. Mr. and Mrs. Randolph Cooper are among the newcomers at the Seaside.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin D. Van Name arrived at the Marlborough-Blenheim. Mrs. George E. Lockwood and Mrs. E. G. Strauss came from New York to the Alhambra.

Airplane 'Stunts' Divert Delaware Gap Folk

Fresh-Water Bathing Makes Such an Appeal That Beaches Are Crowded Daily

Special Dispatch to The Tribune DELAWARE WATER GAP, Pa., Aug. 14.—Never in the generation has fresh-water bathing made the appeal in the mountain resorts that is recorded this year, and Delaware Water Gap's bathing grounds are dotted with throngs of swimming enthusiasts.

Air flights for pleasure are daily occurrences at the resort where a company of Philadelphians has set on foot a plan to fly three planes of the "Stunt type." Another plan is to drop a monkey clinging to a parachute. Trips by plane with a monkey entertainer and the clouds have been favored by the novelty seeking.

New York and Brooklyn arrivals at the various houses are: Kittanning—David Kaufman, S. Darcy, John D. Kelly, H. A. Fuld, Miss J. A. Lewis, J. W. Thornton, H. C. Adams, Henrietta Schack, Ray W. Schiff, Joseph W. Cornick and Albert Breen.

Catskill Lodge of Elks Holds Annual Field Day

1,500 Summer Sojourners Flock to Resort to See Races and Other Events

Special Dispatch to The Tribune CATSKILL, N. Y., Aug. 14.—One of the most enjoyable events of the week took place at Catskill, where the Field Day of the Catskill lodge of Elks on Wednesday attracted 1,500 vacationists to witness the races and other sporting events.

Among the most interested spectators were the children from New York who are being cared for at Windham, at the Half Orphan Home there, and who were brought from Windham to Catskill and back as the guests of the Catskill Elks.

The Hotel Kaaterskill was the scene last night of a minstrel performance. The annual testimonial concert for the benefit of the employees of the hotel to-morrow night will be one of the most important events of the midsummer season there.

Among the recent arrivals at the Kaaterskill are: Mrs. Andrew Goodman, Mrs. Charles Cohen, Miss Miriam Cohen, Mrs. Walter Einstein, and Miss Dorothy Einstein, of New York, and Miss Jane Harding, and Mrs. George J. Harding and family of Philadelphia.

At the Ontario Club, the recent election resulted in an entire change of officers, by which George D. Barron, succeeds Mrs. Wood, as president, and Mrs. Leland E. Cofer, succeeds William P. Hardenburgh as vice-president, and Mrs. E. D. Monad becomes chairman of the inn committee. Another result of the election is consideration of the proposal of Francis B. Thurber, of the betterment of conditions at the club, to construct a twenty-acre lake at Ontario, and it looks now as though the coming season would see one of the most attractive of the many artificial lakes in the Catskills within the borders of the Ontario Club.

Mrs. E. Burghard and family, of New York, are occupying Pine Knoll, their summer home at Palenville and are entertaining the family of Von Seidlitz, Mrs. Burghard's sister.

At the Hotel Nonmouth are Mrs. Jessie Beck, Miss Lydia Buckley and Mr. and Mrs. E. Z. Parker, of New York; Miss C. H. Smith, F. E. Forsberg and Miss M. E. Bailey, of Brooklyn.

Recent arrivals at the Coleman include Mr. and Mrs. George Warden, of Philadelphia; Miss Charlotte Winters, Mr. and Mrs. J. Bradley, Miss Gladys Whitman and Miss Essie Burgess, of New York.

Polo Matches Interest Garden City Colonists

Games Postponed Because of Rain Will Be Played This Week

Special Dispatch to The Tribune GARDEN CITY, L. I., Aug. 14.—Owing to the rain that fell in this vicinity almost all afternoon during the week, the devotees of polo and other outdoor sports had their pleasure somewhat curtailed, but the polo games that were postponed will be played this coming week.

The plan to weed out the weaker polo players and retain the more fit for the proposed international polo for next year, when the Americans plan to go to England to try and win the polo cup to this country, is creating considerable interest and, with the idea of being one of the lucky four, the players are on their mettle.

Thomas Hitchcock Jr. is one of the players who is making good and there seems to be but little doubt that he will be one of the challenging four. New arrivals at the Garden City Hotel include Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Andrews, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. D. Robbins, George M. Sullivan, D. N. Morrison, Clinton Elliott Jr., Mrs. G. L.
